The Empress Josephine was one of the most remarkable of all the extraordinary Revolution. Wonderful were the events affectionate of human hearts, she united halves, or cheap for cash, on short notice. the sternest principle of rectitude and a comprehensive genius.

In political foresight, her superiority to Napoleon is now universally recognized. Had he listened to her admonitions, his empire might have been averted. It is worthy of notice that this political foresight and ability has been inherited by her descendants-two of whom, Napoleon III. and Pedro II. respectively the present Emperors of France and of Brazil, are among the ablest sovereigns

We have freely drawn upon various authors, who have recorded anecdotes and traits of Josephine, as related to them, with the tender regret of affection, which, too late, recognized her full value, by Napoleon himself, in his closing years, Full of truth, yet it is the very Romance

Brasil, are among the ablest sovereigns now reigning in the world.

The events of Josephine's life, and remarkable traits of character which she displayed amidst the most amazing vicis-situdes of fortune, afford not only an exceedingly interesting but highly instructive lesson to all who read her biography. In this respect her career, taken as a whole, may challenge comparison with that of any other historical persenage in history.

Josephine constantly looked to the glory of France and the fame of her husband as the two most desirable objects. When Napoleon desired to perpetuate his dynasty by a second marriage which might yield him a male heir to his throne, Josephine nobly sacraficed her own feelings to what she was told might eventuate to the advantage of France. In his adversity, and of general served by a process issued out of this Caurt; it is therefore ordered by the Clerk, in vacation, that the said defendant, and be coutified, by publication being made in the White Cloud Chief, a weekly newspaper published in Doniphan County, for six consecutive weeks, of the pendency of this suit, the object of which is to obtain judgment for Four Hundred and Thirty-Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, together with the interest on the same, and the custs of suit; and the said defendant, James A. McGuire, is herefore ordered by the Clerk, in vacation, that the said defendant be notified, by publication being made in the White Cloud Chief, a weekly newspaper published in Doniphan County, for six consecutive weeks, of the pendency of this suit, the object of which is to obtain judgment for Four Hundred and Thirty-Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, together with the interest on the same, and the custs of suit; and the said defendant, James A.
